

START AN ENVIRONMENTAL JOB TRAINING PROGRAM IN YOUR COMMUNITY!

Strategies for Job Development & Training in Brownfields Communities Workshop

The Hazardous Materials Training and Research Institute (HMTRI) and the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency would like to invite you to participate in a workshop that will show you how to develop an environmental job training program in your community. These workshops are designed to provide knowledge and tools necessary to undertake activities that will maximize job development and employment opportunities for residents living in Brownfields-impacted areas. There is no registration fee to attend (see Cost and Reimbursement below).

AUGUST 5-6, 2008 — BETTENDORF, IOWA

SPONSORED BY

The Hazardous Materials Training and Research Institute (HMTRI) under a Cooperative Agreement with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency.

COST & REIMBURSEMENT

There is no fee to attend. The workshop is funded through a Cooperative Agreement from the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency. Participants from out of town will have their lodging paid for two nights. All other costs (transportation, meals, etc.) will be the responsibility of the participant.
